The shocking and/or untimely death of Uganda's Humble Legislator, Hon Stanley Omwonya Oribdhogwu, Member of Parliament for Okoro Constituency, 02 November 2015 has created emotional twists in the hearts of family members, friends, associates, politicians and others.

The family members acknowledge Hon Stanley, had a medical condition, high blood pressure.

However, on the 1st November 2015, the said condition worsened, and he was admitted to International Hospital Kampala. His energy was not adequate to battle for additional lease of Life. He passed on" narrates a family member.

The Prime Minister of Uganda Rt. Hon. Ruhakana Rugunda, joined mourners at Kirinya, an upcoming township in Wakiso District. He called on the bereaved family to stay strong in the face of all challenges.

"We have lost a hardworking, focused, humble, honest legislator" explains, Rt. Honorable Ruhakana Ruganda.

His body was at state in the parliament of Uganda for the session of last respects. The Deputy Speaker of Parliament Hon. Oulanya Jacob said, "The house had lost a vibrant cadre."

At our Lady of Africa church – Mbuya Kampala, mourners were engulfed in a wave of silence and earthquake – like shock. “Not easy to describe how the ugly hand of death has grabbed our humble legislator” says, a sad faced mourner.

He was buried on the 7th day of November 2015, at Abilambe village, Warr Catholic Parish, Zombo District, after a requiem mass led by the Vicar of Nebbi Catholic Diocese Rev Fr. Opio.

The Government of Uganda cleared burial expenses and the family members were offered some financial assistance.

Officiating at the burial, the state minister for Finance and Economic Planning Hon. Fred Jacan Omach, hailed the Late Hon. Stanley for having exhibited competence, reliability, humility.... throughout his journey in life. He called on Ugandans to embrace his legacy.
