BIBLICAL IMPLICATIONS

GALATIANS 5:16-25 THE SPIRIT AND HUMAN NATURE

What I say is this: Let the spirit control your lives and you will not satisfy the desires of human nature. For what our human nature wants is opposed to what the spirit wants, and what the spirit wants is opposed to what our human nature wants. These two are enemies, and this means that you can not do what you want to do. If the spirit leads you, then you are not subject to the law. What human nature does is quite plain. It shows itself in immoral, filthy and indecent actions; in worship of idols and they fight; they become jealous, angry, and ambitious. They separate into parties and groups; they are envious, get drunk, have orgies and do other things like these. I warn you now as I have before: those who do these things will not possess the kingdom of God. But the spirit produces love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, humility and self control. There is no law against such things as these. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have put to death their human nature with all its passions and desires. The spirit has given us life; he must also control our lives. We must not be proud or irritate one another or be jealous of one another.

JOEL 2:12-13

“But even now,” says Lord, “repent sincerely and return to me with fasting and weeping and mourning. Let your broken heart show your sorrow; tearing your clothes is not enough”

Come back to the lord your God. He is kind and full of mercy; he is patient and keeps his promise; he is always ready to forgive and not punish.

DEUTERONOMY 23:9-14

KEEPING THE MILITARY CAMP CLEAN

“When you are in camp of war, you are to avoid anything that would make you ritually unclean. If a man becomes unclean because he has had a wet dream during the night, he is to go outside the camp and stay there. Towards evening he is to wash himself, and at sunset he may come back into camp. You are to have a place outside the camp where you can go when you need to relieve yourself. Carry a stick as part of your equipment, so that when you have a bowel movement you can dig a hole and cover it up. Keep your camp ritually clean, because the Lord your God is with you in your camp to protect you and to give you victory over enemies. Do not do anything indecent that would cause the Lord to turn his back on you.

John 4:24 “God is spirit; His worshipers must worship him in Spirit and in Truth”.
