

OUCHA MEETS GOD IN KENYA- AFRICA

By Safe Life Investigator

In Africa.

World renowned HIV/AIDS Activist, Composer HIV/AIDS anthem, celebrated author of the Congo War series 'my Congo Story , an independent eye inside Congo- Red Pepper 2007', PATRICK DONALD OUCHA, has finally signed 'a memorandum of understanding with divine Authority' to promote GOD'S Glory across the Globe. Patrick Donald Oucha, 46, suffered series of satanic traps before God directed him to search and find THE REVIVAL COVENANT TO THE BODY OF CHRIST - KENYA, which provided peaceful Guidance for him( OUCHA) to understand and accept Jesus Christ as the only savior. Patrick Donald Oucha, was reportedly taken through series of deliverance channels, offloading some bitterness deposited in his Heart and Mind over the years. He was restricted to Emmanuel T.V ( A religious channel) in order to tap and appreciate the magical power of God. In his testimonies, on Easter day, 20 April 2014, Oucha singled how God rescued him from the hands of 'blood thirsty' people In Africa and Europe. He touched on family rejection as an item that almost claimed his life as well. OUCHA confirms that God is real and no durable solutions to life's burning issues would be reached without God's intervention. He has promised to streamline God's messages in all projects under his management across the Globe. Patrick Donald Oucha, is HIV /AIDS Negative. His global war against HIV/AIDS is Godly inspired and powered to save youths from the scourge. He is popularly referred to as 'Mr. WHY DIE YOUNG' .

GOD'S STRUGGLE TO PROTECT OUCHA

Orphaned at age 2, Patrick Donald Oucha, has gone through life of an African super star and survivor, whose survival experience has contents every serious investigator would admire. To kick start the painful but rewarding journey of life, Oucha was at age five confronted by a huge black water COBRA which almost finished him but God intervened timely.

“I was playing around the compound where we used to grow pumpkins in panyimur village, that’s when I saw a black thing very annoyed with me. I did not run and it rose to my height. It was very furious but i rushed for its neck and started scratching. The COBRA felt good, looked into my eyes for about twenty minutes then cooled down and left without harming me.” Explains, Patrick Donald Oucha.

In 1990, Oucha survived a murder attempt by his London Boss (a Jamaican woman) who was caught in action, raising a pang knife behind him (Oucha) with intent to murder.

“ It was shock of my life when I turned and saw my lady boss in action to finish me without cause. The pang knife fell off as the two of us remained motionless. You know I used to work at a hotel around Askew Road- West London. I resigned my petty job that very night.” Narrates, Oucha

In 1993, Oucha was arrested by Congolese soldiers who robbed him off all valuables. The soldiers later demanded for additional cash payment of sixty thousand Uganda shillings, which he (Oucha) could not readily produce. He was then to be buried alive with six other detainees. No sooner had he been buried than his uncle arrived at the burial ground with sixty thousand shillings. Oucha was then released to open- air – freedom.

“ I was arrested with cash money of about three thousand pounds. The soldiers confiscated my passport and were determined to burry me alive. I pleaded with them to spare my precious life. Them guys demanded for additional cash payment of sixty thousand Uganda Shillings. Good enough, my late uncle delivered the sixty thousand and I was set free.” Explains, Oucha

In 1995, Oucha survived being drowned in water between Pakwach and Panyimur, in nebbi District.

“ I arrived in Pakwach at about 10pm and the only available transport was by water. I hired a boat to ferry me across. Midway, the two crews planned on how to eliminate me and confiscate my valuables. My body shivered for about seven minutes, shortly God spoke to me on how to establish security response. I picked a knife and took command of the boat to safety.” Explains, Oucha.

In 1999, Patrick Donald Oucha, was dumped by a bus driver in the middle of Uganda rebel infested Game park, where all tribes of wild animals were ready for his meat and rebels watching . Surprisingly, he was rescued by another bus from pakwach town, thirty minutes after.

“Very sad that I argued with a hostile bus driver who simply parked the bus in the center of rebel infested Game park and instructed me out of the bus. Unexpectedly, the said driver was reportedly killed one week later at the same spot where he unlawfully dumped me” Explains, Oucha

In 2000, Patrick Donald Oucha, was robbed by Congolese women at Kandrom Barracks- Bunia, Ituri province, DRC. The women later ferried him to a near by cemetery to burry him alive but his usual GOD, said No.

“ Congolese women yelled over me, associating me with those who looted Congo. I was tortured senselessly and ferried to a near by cemetery for burial with my eyes still open. A Ugandan soldier arrived at the scene and dispersed women. The soldier fired about twenty bullets in the air.” Narrates, Oucha.

In the same year, 2000, Oucha was arrested and detained at Rwampara Guard De civil Bunia- Under ground cell, with allegations that he could have been spying for unknown organizations. He was later cleared after investigations.

“I was arrested and tied seven meters under ground, ready to face barrel fire but my usual God intervened. I was released to continue with normal military training. I later found my way back to Uganda.” Narrates, Oucha

OUCHA SURVIVES DEMONIC ARREST & DETENTION

He was robbed and lured to the top of Demonic Hills in Jinja- Uganda, On the 17th day of June 2006.

He drove his own car with wife by his side. On arrival, they were instructed by invisible persons to kneel down and remove all valuables in their possession. They were unable to see any body but voices of invisible persons. The demons arrested them for about four hours. Oucha was directed to pick Huge amount of money on the hills but he declined. The rocks and trees were reportedly talking like human beings.

“ I consider it the most painful and difficult moment life ever presented. I had never witnessed rocks speak like human beings and trees dance like young women. Here I came face- to – face with Devil. What saved me was my white Rosary” Narrates, Oucha.

FAMILY REJECTION/THE PRICE OF FIGHTING HIV/AIDS

With global fame, Oucha has faced rejection from his immediate family. They do not see eye- to-eye.

“ I could not stop fighting HIV/AIDS because some people in my family were uncomfortable. I had to choose between my people and the global community that I serve indiscriminately. I have sisters in the USA and the UK but no communication between us.” Explains, Oucha

Additionally, “my family,be it close or distance, must understand that I have invested in people and I am for the people. In a nut shell, please refer to me as ‘ Man of the People’. I forgive them for all the wrongs they have committed in my name.”

HOW I PAY THE PRICE FOR FIGHTING AIDS

“My right hand has developed unique power which does not permit me to beat or slap any thing with blood in it. I can not get involve in any argument that would make me annoyed. I have developed a unique power which God alone has to deliver me from. “ Explains, Oucha.

“Because of HIV/AIDS, I enjoy Global fame and instant recognition where ever I go. I decided to walk in Christ, Live with him so that all my followers out there switch on to Jesus Christ’ channel” Explains, Oucha

Additionally, “ I longed for salvation since age 12 but there was no right time and place to meet GOD. I thank the holy spirit that fixed appointment for me to meet GOD in Kenya.”

Please watch This space.

‘The Best Yet To Come’

Man of the people